Steve:

Thank you for your letter. We will respond accordingly, but can immediately note that your list of items produced does not identify the document request or interrogatory to which they are responsive. Trust it is with the original production?

Separately, per our conversation yesterday, we will provide you with deadlines for production or certification, as applicable, in response to Judge Day's Order of March 24th.

Please advise if BSI has made a decision whether it will comply with the Court's Orders regarding the Wagner report, the privilege log and BSI's tax returns. These matters directly impact our ability to prepare for depositions and the mini-trial and we would prefer to bring them to the Court's attention immediately.

Similarly, it does not appear that BSI has produced the "Game Plan" document as required by the Court in DEs 441 and 606. Please advise whether BSI has produced the document or comply with the Orders by COB tomorrow (Wednesday 13th).

Best,

Sandy
